

WALES & WEST: Sheepcote Well To Do (Jess Viney) impresses at medium

Jess Viney impressed with Sheepcote Well To Do at Burrows Court Farm, Glos (21 May), winning both mediums outright with plus-70% scores.

"I event, mainly, so he's my bit of fun on the side," said Jess of the 16hh Wurlitzer gelding she received for her 18th birthday.

Now eight, he arrived as a just-backed four-year-old from Sheepcote EC.

"I do a lot to keep him sparky and he fits in well with the eventers," added Jess, who trains with Lucy Farrer. "The medium 75 was definitely the hardest test he's done. He's such a saint — I wouldn't swap him for the world."
